For Oktoberfest 2018 in NYC, grab your favorite sweater, a friend or two, and toast Prost! at the Oktoberfest celebrations going on all around the city. (The original Munich Oktoberfest was held in 1810 and New Yorkers have been using it as an excuse to down a few beers almost ever since.) From beer gardens to boat rides, we've got some great ideas for celebrating.

Oktoberfest at Watermark Bar

On September 21st-23rd, September 27th-30th, October 4th-7th, October 11th-14th, Watermark Bar overlooking the East River in the South Street Seaport will be celebrating Oktoberfest from noon to midnight, with a smorgasbord of food, games, beer (including Hofbrau, Weihenstephan, and Radeberger), and live music.
